

Mark Henkel is a DTM, Distinguished Toastmaster, who joined Toastmasters 8 years ago.

Among his many other awards, Mark has been awarded

- District 45's Toastmaster of the Year Award
- Not 1 -Not 2- but 3 "Allen E. Seavey" Awards (for sponsoring more new members than anyone else in our District), and
- a Triple Crown every year that he has been a member,
- Including 8 different Competent Communicators, (called the "CC" under the legacy education system before the Pathways rollout).

At District 45 Toastmasters Conferences, Mark has

Presented a number of original workshops, AND has Competed as a Contestant a number of times on the District stage.

Mark Henkel studies under his mentor, Joe Grondin, who is the 6time 1st place winner of District 45 International Speech Contest the 2time Top10 Finalist in the World Championship of Public Speaking, and, just this last year, Joe has earned the Accredited Speaker.

Having studied both the contest system and the speeches at World Championship level contests, Mark is here to share what he has learned on these important issues.

Please help me give a warm welcome to DTM, Mark Henkel,
as he presents his webinar titled,

"Judge Contests Objectively Using the BALLOT POINT System"
